

Case Officers

Corporate Reporting Review team, Corporate Governance and Reporting Division

The Financial Reporting Council (FRC), the UK's independent regulator responsible for promoting high quality corporate governance and reporting to foster investment. We are currently recruiting Case Officers to the Corporate Reporting Review (CRR) team based in Central London.

Corporate Reporting Review (CRR) monitors financial information provided by companies for compliance with relevant accounting requirements and enquiries into apparent departures through correspondence and face-to-face meetings with company Chairman, directors and senior officers.

As a member of the CRR Team you will consider reviews of reports and accounts and recommend an appropriate regulatory response. Strong oral and written communication skills are essential to operate effectively in this high profile environment.

Key responsibilities include:

- Drafting letters and analysing responses from companies
- Attending meetings with company representatives
- Supporting FRRP Review Groups
- Conducting ad-hoc project and research work.

This is a chance to work with members of the FRRP in a stimulating and challenging environment where there is the opportunity to make a real contribution to improving the quality of corporate reporting in the UK.

Successful candidates will be fully qualified members of ICAEW, ACCA, ICAS or CAI or equivalents and will have detailed knowledge of IFRS and significant experience at Senior Manager level in a major firm or corporate for at least a few years.

Rewards and benefits

The FRC offers competitive remuneration packages, with generous benefits, discretionary annual bonus and 30 days annual leave plus ability to buy extra leave

The FRC has a strong work/ life balance ethos
