

I am appalled to read in the press that you are proposing to allow UK companies not to send annual and interim reports to shareholders. I have been investing in UK companies for over 50 years and have a portfolio in excess of £500,000. I find reports essential in dealing with my portfolio. Please let me know why you are considering this action Thanks

Colin Welch