

The suggestion that annual reports should not be available in printed form is unacceptable. Many people have not the time or the eyesight to sit glued to a screen reading a long report. Pensioners, particularly, will be disadvantaged.

P.G.B.Wills

Former Deputy Chairman, The Stock Exchange.